

July 2007 NAQP RTTY Results

Shelby Summerville, K4WW

Being south of the Mason-Dixon Line seemed the place to be for the July 2007 running of the NAQP RTTY Contest. Stations in that part of the world recorded 9 of the top 10 scores.

Charlie, K15XP, again played the W5WMU superstation to a first place finish. Don, AA5AU, slowly and surely returning after his disastrous experience with Hurricane Katrina, recorded a second place finish. Two well-known call signs, N4GN and K3WW (great suffix), recorded top 10 finishes.

The crew of N0NI, K0WHV and KE0WO operated N0NI to a first place finish in the M/2 category. The W6YX crew (K16CCH, N6DE, N7MH, and W6RK) finished second.

With four members in the top ten (N4ZZ, AD4EB, W4GKM, and K4RO), the TCG Diddles finished first in the team category, ahead of SWACC #1.

First-time participants seem to be increasing with each running of NAQP, and I encourage the old-timers to do all possible to make them welcome and to encourage their future participation.

Many thanks to all entrants. Without your participation, RTTY contesting would be nothing more than watching TV. Also thanks to Bruce, WA7BNM, for handling the log checking.

Soapbox

AA4LR: A personal best in the NAQP RTTY!

AA5AU: Great seeing 10 meters open. AD4EB: Fun contest, as always, this has become my favorite.

AD6ZJ: I had my 3 year old son in the shack most of the contest and it never failed — when was getting lots of calls he needed help with his toy/lunch/drink/toilet run/spilled drink/what are these buttons on the radio for?/I'm hungry/can we swim now?/the wheel broke off my car fix it now.

AF4Z: It was fun as always and it was great to see so many new calls in the log.

AK9F: After the ice storm demolished the winter RTTY contest, this was a real joy to operate.

K0RC: W9ILY/Ø in North Dakota came through on 80m for my last state needed on LoTW RTTY WAS.

K0UK: Interesting conditions.

K1ZZI: This was my first NAQP RTTY and it was great fun.

K2QM: First time in an NAQP.

K3GP: Ya gotta love this contest.

K3WW: I tried 10 hours straight just to get finished.

K4DLI: First QSO Party ever entered. K4RO: Several five-banders in the log. K6GEP: My contesting was very frustrated due to personal commitments.

K5TD: Tried SO2R for the first time.

KE1F: Good to QSO the dedicated few.

KE5OG: That was a battle.

KG5U: QRP in a contest in July is tough.

K15XP: What a fun contest!

KK5OQ: First beam/tower owned so took a little time to get use to.

KQ6ES: So far I find RTTY less than exciting but I'll stick with it.

KS7S: This contest was loads of fun, as always.

KT4FY: I think there should be a handicap for Hams with noisy families.

N1MGO: We ran Field Day style, from a hunting camp in VT.

N3CHX: So even at 65 I'm really starting to dig contesting!

N3KAE: I couldn't pass up the chance to stop at a point where the local dialect says "Tree Tirdy-Tree".

N4GN: I'm really glad I got on!

N6XI: Made my 1st RTTY QSO in 37 years the day before the contest.

ND2T: Waiting for a sunspot.

NN7SS: Being QRP brought the usual "challenges."

NP3D: I couldn't wait till contest begins, even tried to start two hours earlier.

VA1CHP: Couldn't quite make 500 Qs but maybe next time.

VA7ST: Had a lot of fun, despite missing all the 10M and 15M action everyone else seems to have had.

VE3TPZ: First time on RTTY and doing RTTY contesting.

VE7FO: Went M/2 so I could go the full 12 hours and use spots.

W0YK: I could copy more than I could be heard.

W1UE/VE1: Thanks to all that stayed with me.

W4GAC: Nice to see so many new calls on RTTY.

W4RK: RTTY seems to be growing.

W9ILY/Ø: I hope that I was able to help some with their WAS awards for RTTY.

WQ2N: Clearly my best performance beat my previous score by 48K!
