The top-ten single op scores for the January 2006 NAQP SSB Contest represented a greater geographical area than the CW results. Richard Hallman, N7TR, took first place from Nevada with a score resulting both from having the most QSOs and most mults of any single-op entrant. Bill Kollenbaum, K4XS, captured second place with a strong showing from Florida. Mitch Mason, K7RL, in Washington narrowly edged W6YI, operated by Dan Craig, N6MJ, in California, for third place. Rich Smith, N6KT, operated W6NL also in California to fifth place, while George Freman, K5TR, took sixth from Texas. Another Californian, Arnold Shatz, N6HC, squeaked in front of Mike Wetzel, W9RE, in Indiana for seventh. Paul Newberry, N4PN, in Georgia and Pat Sonnier, W5WMMU, in Louisiana completed the top ten.

Dan Lazar, VE6EX, dominated the single-op QRP category with a score almost three times greater than second place W6AQ in California. Russ Hibma, K9DXR, in Illinois nipped Randy Shirbraun, ND0C, in Minnesota for third place, and Doug Ferris, VA3DF, took fifth.

In one of the closest finishes ever in the multi-two category, the Mount Frank Contesters, K9NS, in Illinois took first place by a mere 305 points over NK7U in Oregon. W4MYA was third from Virginia.

The Northern California Contest Club No. 1 team was first in the team competition powered by two of its five members placing in the single-op top ten. The Southern California Contest Club No. 1 team took second, with the Potomac Valley Radio Club Senators team following in third.
